Promotional Post – Guidelines and specifications

Channels & Posting schedule
- Posting is offered on Facebook and/or Twitter
  - Select the channel of choice via the form provided by the Industry Coordinator, based on the size of your social media package
  - If you’re entitled to multiple posts, you can choose to pick to post the same content on multiple channels or decide to allocate different posts.
- Provide copy and images for each post
  - Your image or copy should include the provided disclaimer. See more below.
- Select whether your post should launch pre-conference (between 12 April - 26 April), during the Conference (27-30 April), or post-conference (up to 3 months after conference live days).
  - Facebook posts are available only pre-conference or post-conference.
  - There is limited availability for posting during the conference. The ATTD social media team may decide to move your post in case of lack of availability.
  - Exact posting date is decided by the social media team. You can mention a preferred date in the submission form, and we will do our best to accommodate this.

Posting About Sponsors and Exhibitors on social media

Posts that do not meet the below compliance rules will not be published.

Due to compliance regulations, the following general guidelines apply.
- We cannot show company logos alongside branding with programme info
- We cannot use commercial product names in posts on social media
- Do not use a company logo as “supporter of a congress” banner
Industry Session
- Posting about the industry session itself on social media
  o Must include compliance disclaimer - either in the post/image
    - “Sponsored content. Contains promotional information, distinct from main CME/CPD event”
  o Can only link to an industry page on the ATTD website
    - We cannot link to the virtual conference platform
    - If linking to external page – only mentioning the session itself, no other information
      - No specific product/drug mention
      - Product report/research findings
        o Not to a landing page of the product itself, so could be a news article, press release

Exhibitor Booths
- Can post about visiting a booth, inviting people, etc.
- We cannot advertise the products directly o There are many codes on international, national and company level that set strict rules for this
- However, can mention your company and refer to “product updates at their booth”
  o No brand names allowed!
  o We cannot link directly to the exhibition of the virtual platform or to a booth directly.
- Must include compliance disclaimer - either in the post/image
  o “Sponsored content. Contains promotional information, distinct from main CME/CPD event”
